

Biodiversity

FROM BALCONY TO BUILDING SITE AND BEYOND

The conference is FREE but advance booking is essential. Please e-mail towerhabitats@towerhamlets.gov.uk or phone 020 7364 2631 to book a place

Talks include

- East End wildlife: precious assets in a time of change - Professor David Goode
- Doorstep habitats: improving urban sites for wildlife and people - Katie Roberts, Trees for Cities
- The Big Waterways Clean Up 2012 and Love the Lea - Theo Thomas, Thames21
- Delivery of the LBAP: half time report - John Archer, Biodiversity Officer, L.B. Tower Hamlets
- Water-sensitive urban design and biodiversity - Gary Grant, ecological consultant
- Looking Back and Looking Forward: Mile End and Victoria Parks - Michael Rowan, Head of Parks, L.B. Tower Hamlets

A FREE conference to mark the half way point in delivering the Tower Hamlets Local Biodiversity Action Plan 2009-2015

The Ecology Pavilion,
Mile End Park
Wednesday 27th June
2012, 9.30am-1pm

Followed by lunch and a tour of Mile End Park

Stalls and displays from environmental and community organisations including:

- Cable Street Community Gardens
- Friends of Tower Hamlets Cemetery Park
- Greenspace Information for Greater London
- London Invasive Species Initiative
- London Wildlife Trust
- Stepney City Farm